Dear Sir:

On February 11, 2004, Applicant received a Final Office Action for the captioned patent application, front page of Final Office Action (TTO-90C) and Office Action Summary (PTOL-326) are attached as Exhibit A. On April 9, 2004, less than two months from the receipt of the Final Office Action, an Amendment after Final was filed. A copy of the front page of the Amendment after Final containing the mailing certificate is attached as Exhibit B. Additionally, attached as Exhibit C is a copy of the confirmation return post card, date stamped April 12, 2004, by the United States Patent and Trademark Office confirming receipt of the Amendment after Final. Finally, attached as Exhibit D is a copy of a PAIR status report also indicating that the Amendment after Final was entered into the United States Patent and Trademark computer system on April 12, 2004.

On August 11, 2004, the final day for responding to the Final Office Action, Applicant's docketing system personnel notified Applicant's attorney that no response had been received from the United States Patent and Trademark Office regarding the early filing of the Amendment after final. Applicant's attorney thereby telephoned the Examiner to obtain a status. The Examiner maintained that as of August 11, 2004, he had not received the Amendment after Final. Therefore Applicant, on August 11, 2004 filed an RCE along with a slightly revised version of the Amendment After Final previously filed on April 9, 2004 with the requisite three month extension of time fee and RCE filing fee.

Applicant contends that an Advisory Notice or Notice of Allowance should have been forthcoming prior to having to file an RCE in the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Therefore, Applicant requests that the extension fee paid with the filing of the RCE should have been at a maximum a one month extension at $110.00 rather than the $950.00 for the three month extension of time filed with the RCE. Therefore applicant requests that, if the Honorable Commissioner deems this communication to be accurate, Applicant be reimbursed the additional $840.00 paid to insure the Amendment is entered and acted upon. Additionally, if the Examiner deems the above to be accurate, please credit the overpayment of $840.00 to Deposit Account No. 50-0320.
